

TEST PREP RESOURCES

---

Peterson's Test Prep -available through OLCHS Media Center

Online practice tests for AP Exams, ACT, SAT and ASVAB. Access this program online through the media center webpage - click on the magnifying glass, then click on the Testing & Education Reference Center. The password is OLCHS. Click on Improve Your Score and then College Prep.

Khan Academy

Offers free SAT practices online. www.khanacademy.org/sat

Magoosh

Offers over 140 video lessons, over 400 practice questions, and study schedules for the ACT and SAT. Costs vary. www.magoosh.com

Number2

Provides a wealth of information about the SAT and ACT, as well as the differences between the two tests. They offer a Question of the Day and a Word of the Day for the SAT. www.number2.com

Jeanius Prep

Local SAT and ACT classes normally taught in the classroom, but now doing online zoom classes. Costs $240-$340. www.jeaniusprep.com

Better Prep Success

Online ACT prep classes by a former math teacher. Costs approximately $250. www.betterprepsuccess.com

SAT & ACT Study Guides

Books that include practice tests, explanations for answers, test-taking strategies and preparation techniques. Cost $20-$30.

SAT & ACT Exam Flashcards

Flashcards for each section of the exam. Include test-taking strategies and tips. Cost @ $15.

---

This is a list of various test prep resources available to students and is by no means a comprehensive list. We do not endorse any one particular vendor. This is for informational purposes only.